All About You and Your Neighbors

BEAVER DAM.

July 30.—Last Wednesday Daniel T. Rhoads, after a brief illness of paralysis, died at his home in Beaver Dam. He was born in Indiana 32 years ago the 9th day of last April. Moved to Muhlenberg county in 1880 where he was married to Miss Rachel V. Rhoads, who died two years ago last June. He is survived by seven children: Dr. P. T. Rhoads, of Howell, Tenn.; W. R. Rhoads, Los Angeles, Cal.; S. T. Rhoads, Lugert, Okla.; D. B. Rhoads, Mrs. S. D. Taylor, Mrs. C. M. Taylor and Mrs. E. F. Austin, of Beaver Dam. Besides he is survived by his second wife whom he married last September. He was a member of the Baptist church and many years a deacon in his church. Obsequies were performed by Rev. Edgar Allen, his pastor, Thursday at eleven o'clock at the church, after which his remains were laid to rest by the side of his companion.

Mrs. Minervine Coleman and daughter, Miss Edna, of Louisville, spent the week-end with her two brothers, Messrs. Frank Casebier, Beaver Dam, and W. A. Casebier, Prentiss.

Sam T. Rhoads, of Lugert, Okla., arrived in Beaver Dam, last week, being wired of his father's illness.

Mr. Frank L. Smith, architect of Lexington, Ky., is in town this week to draft plans for the new church.

Mr. Willie Coleman, of Beech Grove, Ky., spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Estill Arbuckle, and Mrs. Audrey Stewart. He was accompanied by his family.

Robert Bennett, of Portland, Ore., is visiting relatives in town this week.

EASTVIEW.

July 30.—There was a large crowd in attendance at the Sunday School Convention at Bell's Run church Sunday. Everybody seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Mrs. B. F. Austin, of Beaver Dam, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Vera Duke spent from Sunday until Tuesday with relatives at Livia.

Mr. Pate Taylor was taken to the city hospital at Owensboro Saturday and was operated on for appendicitis. At last account he was doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Loney Taylor, of Quincy, Ill., are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Messrs. Luther Collins and Otto Kimbley, of Taylor Mines, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Tina Coats, of Livia, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duke Tuesday night.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

This section has been blessed with some very fine rains and they come in good time, for crops were needing them very badly. They did some damage, but a great deal more good and taking it all around we should be satisfied with the thought that we are getting all we deserve.

The Singing Convention here last Sunday was a great success in every sense of the word. Just about the largest crowd ever seen here on any occasion and with the exception of a few disturbances by the tough element who always frequent such places, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent and it will be a day long remembered by every one present.

Mr. J. E. Miller is very poorly with a complicated lung trouble of long standing. His physician thinks his case is serious.

BENNETT'S.

July 30.—Several from here attended the Singing Convention at Sulphur Springs Sunday.

School has begun here under the management of Miss Rhoda Whitehouse, of near Magan Station.

Mr. Willie Chapman and little son, Jesse, of Oklahoma, are visiting relatives here. Mr. Chapman will return home in a few days and will be accompanied home by his sister-in-law, Miss Vera Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maples and two children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tatum, of Simmons, from Sunday until Monday.

Mr. George Whobrey, near here, has returned from Dayton, Ohio. He was accompanied home from Louisville by his brother, Kerdis Whobrey.

large tomatoes that he gathered that morning from his plants. The six weighed nine pounds and were fine ones. Other champion tomato raisers of the town and county are expected to produce their champion vegetables now.—[Hodgenville Herald.]

MAKES HIMSELF SLED

Brings Wounded Guide Down Mountain Slope.

Portland, Ore., July 29.—By making of himself a sled on snow-clad upper slopes of Mt. Hood, Elijah Coalman, forestry service lookout on the mountain, brought to safety Hans Fuhrer, a badly injured mountain guide, who is in a hospital here today and may recover.

Fuhrer had guided a party of men and women to the summit, 11,000 feet up. When a mile from the top on the descent, Fuhrer fell on the sharp blade of an ax sustaining a serious wound in the abdomen.

Coalman, the lookout, had been watching the party through a glass from the summit and saw the accident. He slid, coasted and plunged down the intervening mile in a few minutes. With other members of the party he hastily stanchied Fuhrer's wound. Then, throwing himself flat on his back, he drew Fuhrer on his body and directed those in the party to attach a rope to his feet. Holding the wounded man with his clasped arms, Coalman was dragged over the snow two miles to the timber line.

W. R. HOCKER DEAD.

Mr. W. R. Hocker, who was more than 80 years old, died at the home of his son, Mr. J. W. Hocker, in McHenry, Tuesday, July 24.

He was an uncle of Prof. Ozna Shults, of this city, who attended the funeral.

He was for more than 50 years a member of the Methodist church.

He leaves four children, Mrs. Florence Maury, of Webster county; Jno. W. Hocker, at whose home he died; Mrs. Delaney Mefford, of Prentiss; and Jasper C. Hocker, of McHenry. His wife died more than 20 years ago.

His remains were buried in the East Providence burying ground the next day. Rev. R. D. Bennett conducting the funeral.

BIRTHS.

To the wife of Trimble Pendleton, at the home of Dr. E. B. Pendleton, Monday afternoon, a boy.

To the wife of Harrison Shrader near Cook's store, Monday morning, a girl.

FIVE KILLED WHEN AUTO HITS TRAIN AT SEYMOUR

Two Others So Badly Injured That They May Not Recover.

Seymour, Ind., July 30.—Five persons were killed and two others so seriously injured that they may die when a passenger train of the Pennsylvania system struck an automobile at a crossing two miles north of this city last night.

The party had attended a picnic some miles from the city and were returning shortly after 9 o'clock.

After the automobile had been struck by the train it was carried quite a distance before the train could be stopped. When the crew and passengers alighted they found Prewitt, Steinker, Miss Weindhorst and Orstadt dead. Miss Zimmerman was still alive but unconscious. Both the bodies and the injured were brought to this city as fast as possible. Miss Zimmerman, Miss Drogg and Steinwedel were placed in a hospital, where the former died two hours later.

NONAGENARIAN DEAD.

Christian Oldham, wife of John Oldham, deceased, died on the 22d inst. from injuries sustained from a fall some days previous.

She was a daughter of Rev. R. C. and Susanah Taylor and was the oldest and last surviving member of a large family consisting of four sons and six daughters. She was 90 years 3 months and 25 days old.

She is survived by two sons, Nick and Estill Oldham; a daughter having died in young womanhood.

On the day following her death she was buried beside her husband at the old Brick House graveyard after funeral services conducted by her pastor Bro. Breer, of Grayson county.

Quite a large number of relatives and friends listened to the impressive discourse from the text, "For me to die is gain." At a nearby age she "Chose the better part" and was a living epistle of the cleansing power of Jesus' blood. To know her was to love her.

EVERYTHING IN COUNTY PAPER

That your county paper contains a little of everything—not only the coming and going of those you know and the news of the county in general—but other valuable information is evidenced by the fact that last week Mr. Oscar Bennett, a young man of this city, while engaged in road service for the telephone company, came in contact with poison ivy, and as a result had some very badly swollen hands. His father remembered seeing a remedy for that ailment in The Herald a few weeks ago and young Mr. Bennett came to our office to see the paper that contained the remedy, and left saying he was going home and try it. This one issue alone was probably worth more to Mr. Bennett than the yearly subscription price of $1.

EXEMPTION LAW PENALTY.

Those who will go before the local exemption board in answer to the first call under the selective draft act, had best be careful not to make any false statement or certificate as to the fitness or liability of himself or any other person for service under the provisions of this act.

Any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this act, such as making false affidavits as to their exemptions, etc., are subject to a fine not to exceed $2,000 and court martial, and their case so disposed of as seen fit by that body. The penalty also carries with it an imprisonment clause. So you who come before the local exemption board had best state facts.

PROTEST IS ENTERED

Against Importation Of Negroes To Work In Hopkins' Mines.

Madisonville, Ky., July 30.—The farmers of Hopkins county met in mass convention at the court house in Madisonville Saturday to protest against the importation of negroes into Hopkins county to take the places of the white miners employed in the mines of the county, claiming it is flooding the county with gunmen and depriving the citizens of their constitutional rights, and asking the officials of the county to aid the county of armed guards to remove the danger of race war that is threatened at the present time.

Rather Unpleasant.

BAPTIST S. S. CONVENTION

Well Attended and Enjoyable Day Reported—Sumptuous Dinner Served.

The Ohio County Baptist S. S. Convention that convened with Bell's Run church last Sunday was one of the most successful and interesting sessions held during the entire year. The entire program was thoroughly discussed, and much interest in the Sunday School work manifested. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served in the grove nearby.

Everyone felt that the day was profitably spent and left with hearts filled with gratitude to the good people of Bell's Run for their hospitable entertainment.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN GREEN RIVER

Walter Rock, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rock, of Livermore, was drowned in Green river Sunday afternoon. The young man went to the river with some companions and all were wading in the water. He stepped into deep water, and being unable to swim, drowned before help could reach him. The body was recovered and taken to his home where the funeral was conducted Tuesday morning.

The affair cast a gloom over Livermore as the young man was a favorite with those who knew him.—[Cahoon Star.]

RATHER FACE BULLETS THAN FIRE OF ELEMENTS

Warren Ward, who was severely injured some time ago when hit by a bolt of lightning while at work at Chinn's mill, a few miles above Hartford, is rapidly recovering, and will soon be able to return to his work. Mr. Ward says he believes he had rather face the bullets of the Germans than the fire of the elements.

SUBMARINES IN WARFARE.

Only Men of Iron Nerves and Quick Decision Can Work Them.

"It calls for men of iron nerves and quick decision to man our submarines either in peace or war," writes Frank E. Evans in St. Nicholas. "Submarine experts look upon the factor of nerves as the most important of all, and they have given to it the title of calculation."

"Within the cramped walls that are the home of the crew are housed the most intricate mechanisms that man has invented for warfare. Outside its steel walls are mines, great nets of wire, explosives, shells and seaplanes, all devised for its destruction, and the sharp keels of ships that slice through them as a knife cuts cheese. The smallest shell can penetrate them, and nets can hold the submarine as helpless as a child in the grasp of a giant."

"Danger lies everywhere for the tiger of the seas. The ocean in which it lives is a powder tank that waits but for a spark. Only nerves of iron can cope against such an array of enemies. The slightest hesitation of its captain in the face of any of them means the end of his ship and his crew."

"As one expert has put it, the whole A B C of submarine warfare is to act at an instant's warning with nerves of steel."

MAKING GASES LIQUID.

Knowledge of the "Critical Temperature" Solved the Problem.

In regard to the boiling points of liquid, there is an upper limit to the point at which a thing boils—that is, changes to the state of vapor. It is called the critical temperature. No matter how great a pressure exists on a substance, if it is at a temperature greater than its critical it will change to vapor anyway.

The ignorance of this point held back the making of liquefied gases—such as air, carbon dioxide, etc.—for many years. The experimenters tried to liquefy gases at ordinary temperatures by enormous pressures, whereas if they had just cooled the gases below their critical temperatures before applying the pressure liquefaction would have ensued immediately.

This is the method employed today in making liquid air. The air is compressed at first and then allowed to issue from a small orifice, thus expanding and cooling; is then pumped back and compressed by the pump, allowed to go through the orifice again, thus cooling still more, until at last it is below the critical temperature, when the compression caused by the pump liquefies it.

Nature of Sleep.

Investigation by scientists of the nature of the sleep of persons in normal health shows that it varies according to the daily diet and the different hours at which sleep is begun. Altogether the ideal hour for retiring is 10 o'clock. The sleep of a person going to bed regularly at approximately this time gradually augments in intensity for the space of an hour. It then suddenly becomes very profound, reaching its maximum intensity at about 11:30 o'clock. Within five or six minutes from this time it has been found that the sleep begins to be less deep. In an hour the sleeper is again in the same condition of slumber as at about 11:15. From this time until after 2 o'clock the rest is steady and light. From 2 until 4 it augments, and then it consistently diminishes until it ceases at the customary time of rising.

Success.

"My first rich patient was the making of me," confessed the doctor.
"Did you make a marvelous cure?"
"Oh, no. But I got enough money to move into a fashionable neighborhood, and then I called myself a specialist."—Philadelphia Ledger.

U. S. TO RUN DOWN DRAFT SLACKERS

Men Who Failed To Register Will Be Put In Forefront Of Eligibles.

Washington, July 31.—Prompt and efficient work by district exemption boards is expected by Government officials as a result of stripping all red tape from the procedure of the tribunals. President Wilson's executive order outlining the principles to govern exemptions coupled with instructions to the boards from Provost Marshal General Crowder are regarded here as setting in motion the last phase of the selection process with a momentum that insures a minimum of confusion and delay.

The object of instructions is to impress the boards with the view that their primary purpose is to select the personnel for the national army from the great reservoir of registered men. To that end they have been informed that no legal precedents bind them and that there need be no adherence to rules of evidence other technicalities of court procedure.

Attorney General Gregory set in motion further machinery to increase the size of the registration reserve from which the 687,000 men of the first call are to be drawn. Thousands of men failed to register, it has been found, for one cause or another. Through the District Attorneys the Departments of Justice is rounding up these men and when found they will be assigned numbers which will assure their being called upon for examination at an early date. They will be given the serial numbers of men near the top of the list already permanently discharged for physical reasons.

The reason a little girl likes fairy tales is because she hasn't yet grown up and been told them by her husband.
